

International Consortium of Environmental History Organizations (ICEHO) Board has been elected (Report by Ch. Mauch, president)

Redakce

klaudyan@natur.cuni.cz

After two years of chairing the provisional board of ICEHO, I am happy to report that our organization has now entered a stable phase that also gives us the opportunity to elect members to the board. On June 30, at the general meeting of ICEHO which took place during the ESEH conference in Turku, Finland, 8 individuals (among them 4 officers) were appointed to the ICEHO board; the bylaws of our organization were adopted at this meeting, and a nomination committee was established to ensure that all future members can be properly elected.

The members who were appointed to the board are the following:

Jane Carruthers, South Africa, President

Libby Robin, Australia, Vice President

Dolly Jørgensen, Norway, Secretary

Steve Anderson, USA, Treasurer

Mauro Agnoletti, Italy

Ranjan Chakrabarti, India

Lise Sedrez, USA

Verena Winiwarter, Austria

Nomination Committee:

Christof Mauch, Chair

Andrea Gaynor, Australia

Stefania Gallini, Colombia

Source: Ch. Mauch, Rachel Carson Center, Muenchen, Germany, e-mail dated July 7, 2011